to the STUDENT BODY OF FALLS CHURCH HIGH SCHOOL
FALLS CHURCH, VIRGINIA

We Dedicate

"To Mrs. L."

We dedicate this book, historic record
To you, who know our lives so very checkered
With varied spots of good to poor . . .
But you have made performances more mature
By being you. Of littleness incapable,
Your humor inescapable . . .
Your generous interest in us thrives
From June of '58 throughout our lives . . .
And with your honest teaching powers
You gave us here our very finest hours.

Alumni say
"We made the grade
By progress made
In Senior year.
And furthermore
She did not bore
But set before
Her students high and low
A priceless gift for learners fast and slow."

Mrs. Lenvin speaks
"A way to think, you slattern!
Alone, with one's own mind . . .

And leave behind
The trite, the clich'd pattern!"

Her students proudly say
"We learn . . .
We get only
What we earn . . .
Excitingly we think.
We cannot shrink
From tasks that seem so monumental . . .
She says they're hard, but fundamental.
So knowledge of Macbeth we gain
"In thunder, lightning, or in rain" . . .
At last we knew
It all was true.
And something new Began
To stimulate . . .
To elevate . . .
And here we stand
"On stepping stones
Of our dead selves"
Toward
"Higher things."

Mrs. Geraldine L. Lenvin

"We learn . . .

We get only

What we earn . . ."

FOREWORD

Hi Kids!

Sometimes you forget about me, but I've been with you at Falls Church all the time. I cheered at the games, decorated for the dances, fought my way in and out of the school buses, waded through scores of home work assignments and crammed for yea many exams. And all through your sighs of joy and groans of agony . . . I have kept my record for 1958. Enjoy it as I have.

FACULTY

Principal

Neither rain nor sleet nor snow halts Mr. Mason. He has seen us through! In a calm businesslike manner he has mastered Asian flu epidemics, make-up days, over-crowded conditions, and has kept the school running at top-notch efficiency, from the smooth opening day through the final rush of graduation time. His creation, the Student Staff, has been successful in reducing disciplinary problems.

Mr. Barrett gives a word of advice to Barbara Parks.

MR. WILLIAM BARRETT
Assistant Principal for Discipline

Here is the man who keeps us on the straight and narrow. His attendance check-list makes us tremble. And yet we must admit that he is always a fair judge, and quite a likeable person when he gets out from behind that desk.

Assistant Principals

Senior Nancy Lidyard talks over a problem with Dr. Day.

DR. ORLO DAY
Assistant Principal for Instruction

Dr. Day is in charge of that phase of school life which is forever important — teaching and learning. Most students know him as the friend who is always willing to give honest and helpful advice, in his office, in the hall, or at the Hot Shoppe.

Office Staff

MRS. LYONS, MRS. HUGHES, and MRS. TICEHURST in repose for the first time this year.

Guidance Staff

MRS. MILES and MRS. PAISLEY figuring out class standings?

Library Staff

MR. GOTT and MRS. JACKSON doing research on a term paper?

English Department

The English Department is the octopus of the school. It crawls uninvited into the Physics lab, Civics discussions, and unhealthily into the cookery of the Home Economics Department. You might be elated at successfully squaring the hypotenuse in a Math class, but one dangle of the infinite could well upset the triangle, and so it is through the corridors "like I told you," no, my friend, "as I told you;" no one is safe even in the halls.

The wails of correction echo from the eighth grade to the seniors where you alternately hear "Tomorrow and tomorrow . . ." intoned along with an impressive routine of senior words designed to uplift the vocabulary and depress the spirit.

Science Department

The Science Department orbited several times this year. The most prominent was a first place winner in the Northern Virginia Science Fair. Benton Durley's Solar Converter won top honors and sent him to Flint, Michigan, for the National Fair. Another 'firing' well known to us all was the annual H_2S and SO_2 floating through the halls from 207. The formaldehyde from 211 ran a close second. Don't let the innocent looks on Mrs. Chapman's (seated) and Miss Shughrou's faces fool you.

Social Studies

In History and in Civics IV

We learn what good governments are for...

Gently do we learn each day

To sound off the democratic way.

Mathematics Department

From this department come the squares, cube roots and triangles that almost every student at Falls Church has tripped and fallen on at one time or another.

Esso

Social Studies — Of other people —
For us kids
By the teachers!

Physical Education

We put our gym things on —
We take our gym things off,
We just dip our toes in cold, cold water —
Lest we catch a cough!

Language Department

'Je t'aime' they say in French
 'Te amo' it goes in Spanish
 And back with Caesar it went "ego amo te."
 And in Old English "crazy love!"

Music Department

From Bach to Beethoven —
 From Handel with art
 And on to the moderns
 "You've got to have heart."

Business Department

"Now is the time for all good men..."
 And so we typed forever and then.

Home Economics

MRS. SPRING, MRS. LEE and MRS. NELSON cut out a new dress. Could it be a chemise?

Art

MRS. CRUM follows in the footsteps of Rembrandt and Van Gogh with chief paint mixer, SHARON MOREDOCK.

Industrial Arts

MR. STAGI, MR. COOPER and MR. SPRINGSTON pore over plans. Perhaps a stop light to the Hot Shoppe?

CLASSES

OFFICERS

Senior Class

The Seniors have wandered around during the past year about six feet off the ground and with term papers balanced on their heads. The New York trip interrupted pleasantly, but briefly, the Saturday afternoons of school. Seniors wondered if they ever would graduate.

Finally and triumphantly the year drew to a close and they marched down the aisle to graduation — bedecked, becaped and begowned. They have arrived!

Junior Class

This was the year of Roberts, Vliet, and American History; of Toone, Ghandi and Emily Dickenson. This was the year of money-making schemes and a not-too-successful St. Patrick's Day Dance; of rented tuxedos and prom panic. It was not in vain though; the year ended with has-been Juniors looking into the eyes of Lenvin, Mishou, and facing the prospect of the Senior trip.

Sophomore Class

The Sophomores with their wise glances have larked their way through their last year before assuming the grand old privilege of joining the ranks of upperclassmen. They tried desperately to have a Sock Hop despite the snow and finally, several weeks after the original date made it a rollicking success.

Freshman Class

Freshman year, with new-found importance and the knowledge that the class was no longer at the bottom of the pile; with big-name subjects, proudly spouting first-year languages, and the thrill of being a real part of the high school machine. One year down, and three to go.

Eighth Grade

First at Falls Church; swamped in achievement tests and high school preliminaries, caught in the confused whirl of dashing from the Gulch to Glen Forest, and Glen Forest to the Gulch on overcrowded buses. Small, but rugged, they started on the royal road to high school.

HONOR ASSOCIATIONS

National Honor Society

The National Honor Society is full of students whose class averages are E or G but whose parents wonder if they are really as smart as the report cards say.

Honor Society members will be remembered for the lovely Christmas Dance with that monstrous Christmas tree.

Of course there was the Easter Seal drive with members pestering everyone for a nickel or a dime, or at least a penny for the cause.

Thespian

President — MARTI MILLER, on stool on stage.

Secretary-Treasurer — MICHELLE MONTGOMERY, standing beside Marti.

Clerk — CAROL ROBEY, standing behind Marti.

Quill and Scroll

Treasurer — CAROL SMITH, first on right, first row.

History Honor Society

The History Honor Society is new this year. It is primarily for Juniors taking American History. The organization seeks to further interest in the study of American background and the American scene.

Science Honor Society

The Science Honor Society is also a newly formed organization this year. Its main purpose is to present programs of interesting and informative talks on science to grade school children to interest them in science. If you see any of the members running around with test tubes and Bunsen burners, don't worry about it! That's science!

Junior Honor Society

The Junior Honor Society, swarming with new members and school spirit, helped out with a successful College Night and aided the National Honor Society with the Easter Seal Drive.

Societe Honoraire de Francais

The French Honor Society started the year with only eight members, but grew by leaps and bounds after the induction in the early spring. The Frenchies thought all year of some way to raise money and finally arrived at the novel idea of selling potato salad, no less. Mmmmm, but it tasted good!

FINE ARTS

Hats off to the group that's always ready, willing and able to give an interesting assembly program! That's the A Capella Choir. At the end of the year, Miss Green holds those suspenseful tryouts and one always hears "Guess what? I made A Cappella!"

Mastersingers

The Mastersingers is a small group; there are only 16 members, but you would never know it. They whip through those Madrigals with a professional air. We are sure that Superintendent Woodson will remember the night they came caroling.

Music hath charm—and the Girls' Ensemble enhances it! Trained to sing as a harmonious group, these girls do Miss Green proud.

Band Officers

Remember the times you stared out the window, when you should have been doing class work? Little old teacher didn't have a chance when the band marched up and down the field! All that marching was worth it! The band and the majorettes, led by Bev Sulpice and Joyce Allsman, helped to make the football season a bang-up success and added their music and high marching spirit to the All State Band, the Winchester Parade and the District Four Festival.

Drama Department

"The show must go on!" This is the famous slogan that the Drama department is still crying after three postponements of the play, The Cat and The Canary. Originally scheduled for December, it was first postponed because of Asian Flu. It was postponed until February, but the snow put it out of business. Striving for a March performance we were forced to have a "dark" stage due to a storm which brought down the wires.

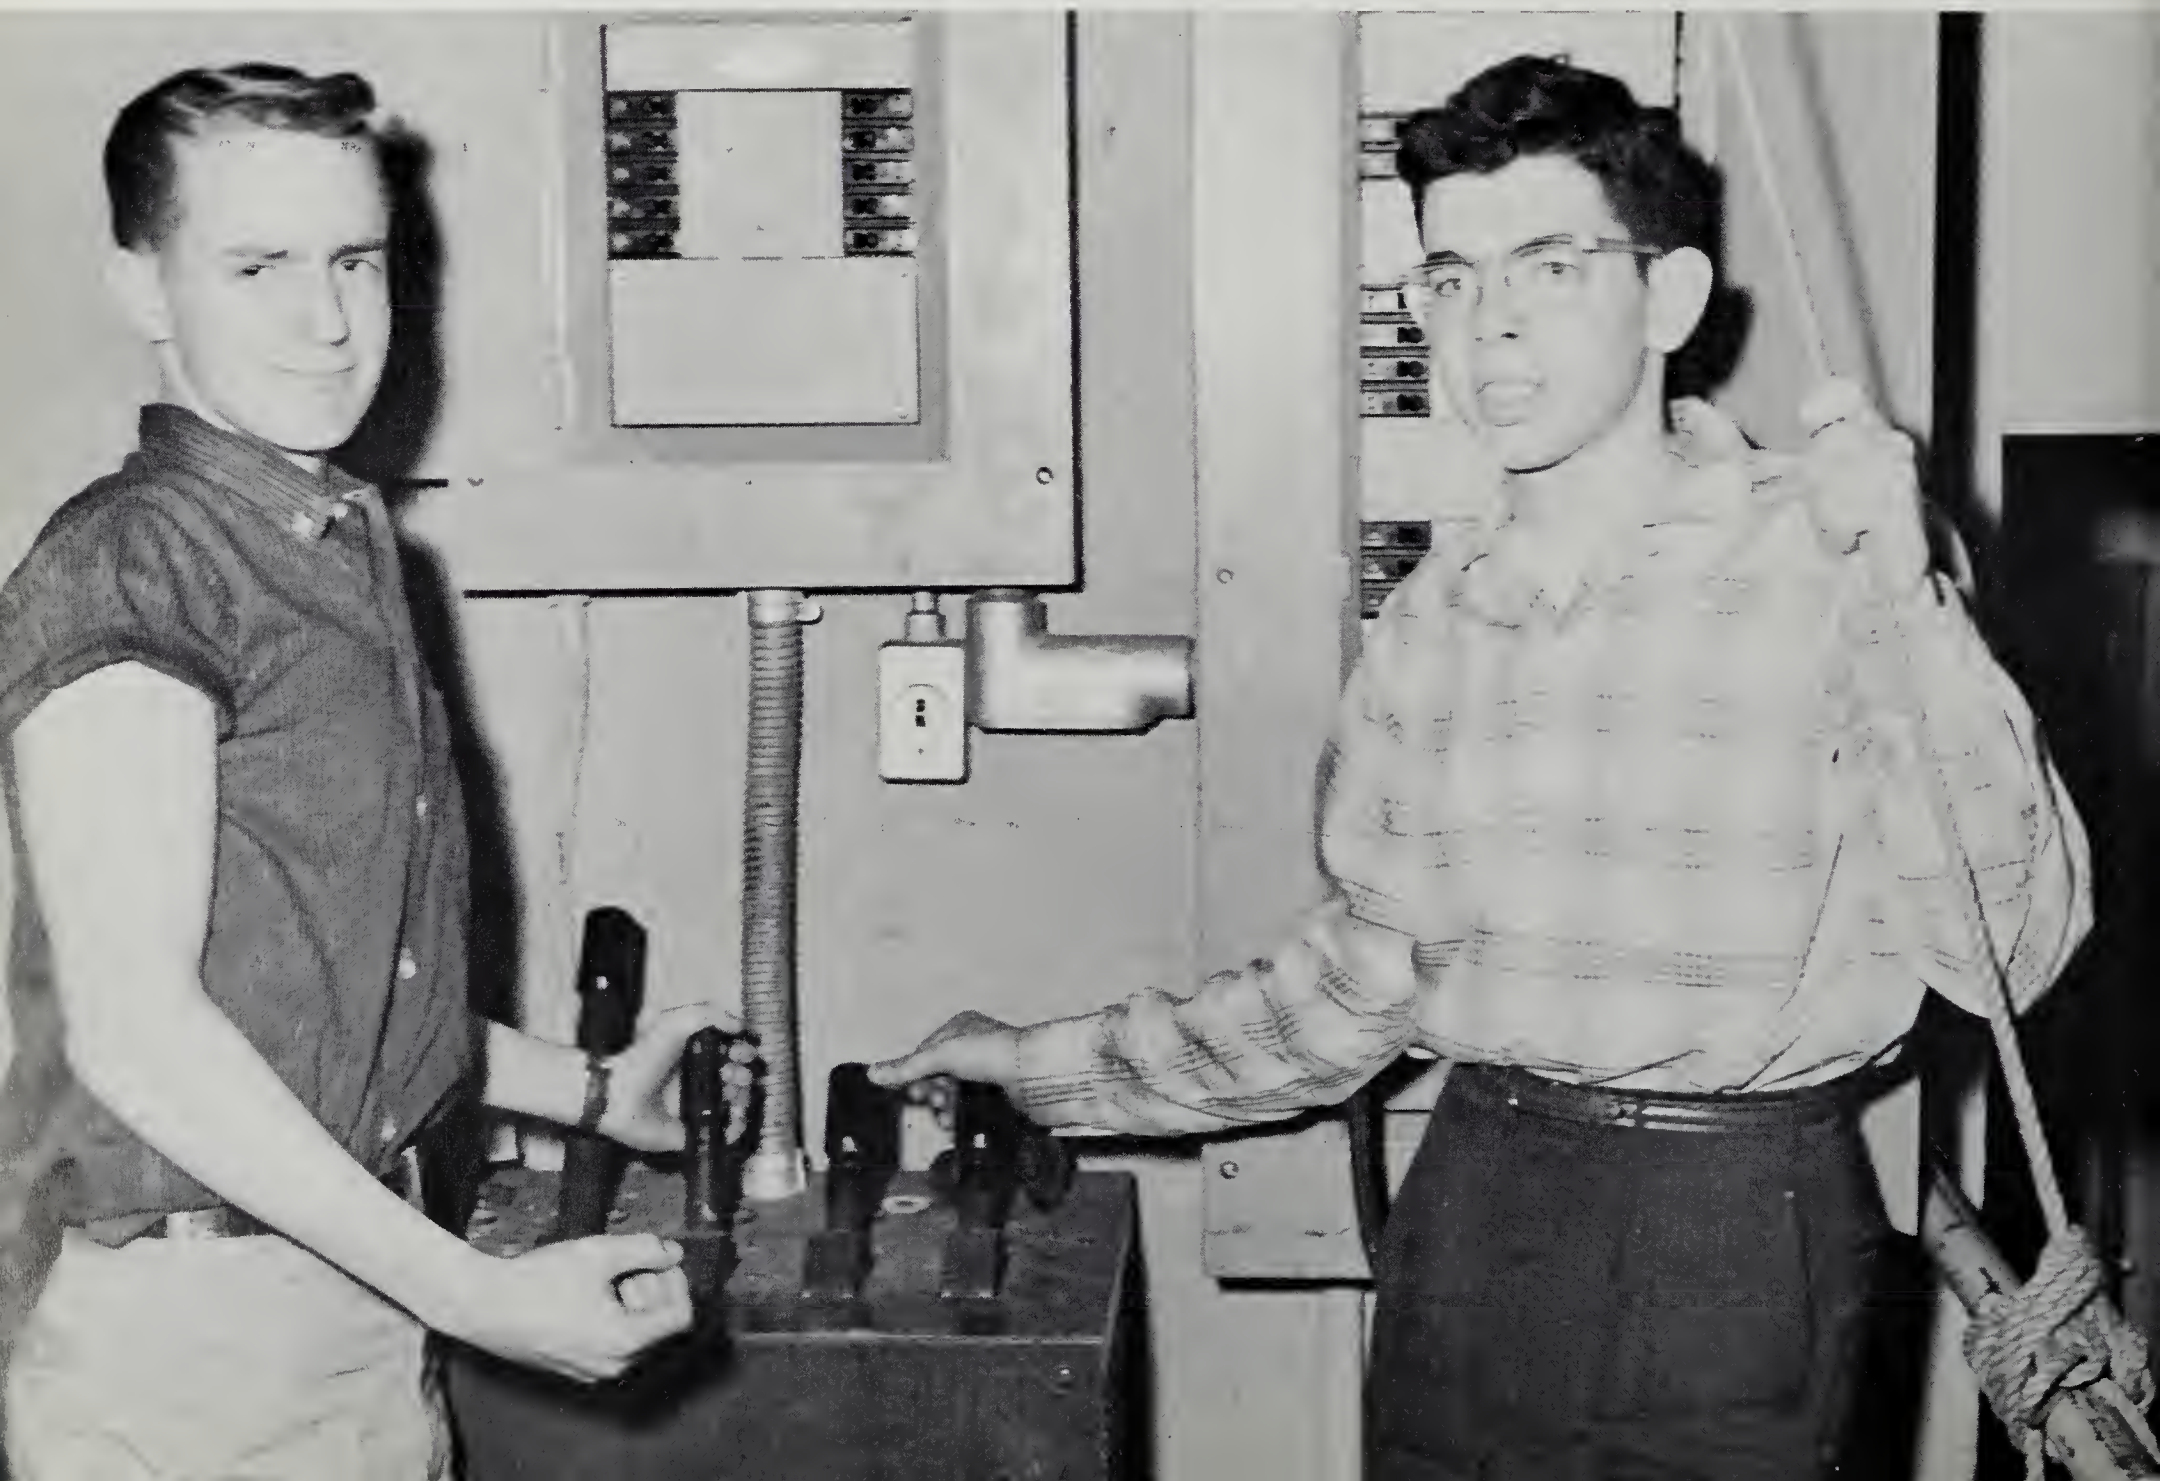

Amid all of this distress, there was one bright spot. Our one-act play, Early Frost, won a Distinguished Rating in the District Festival. This meant Charlottesville and the State Festival. Shouts of victory were really in order when we received the Distinguished Rating at Charlottesville.

Though hectic, the year was wonderful. We had fun fighting our way to the school on "snow days" to rehearse just in case we could go on. Such are the trials and tribulations of the Falls Church Drama department.

Forensics

Forensics for '58 really gathered honors for Falls Church in national, state and local competition. This year will long be remembered for rehearsals in the library and the voice of Mrs. Jackson heard over the murmur of poetry, prose and the speeches.

Top honors went to Pat Murphy who won the State Key Club Oratorical Contest and will compete in the National competition. Pat also won the American Legion county contest in the district and zone and placed third at State. He also represented Falls Church in Debate and Prose Readings. His alternate for the school was Janet Littell.

Ron Sampson won a first in Public Speaking and will go to State while Marti Miller placed third in Girls' Public Speaking and Linda Jo Hamma won a distinguished in Poetry Reading. Martha Fruit represented us in Spelling with alternates Jim Cappio and Hoy Steele and the Prose Reading position was held down by Adrienne Allen.

The success of our basketball team was due to a variety of essentials that make up a winning effort.

The players on the team were skilled and the competition was keen. The team had desire and hustle, a good defensive and offensive balance, and the ability to come back after a loss—a real hard-nosed ball club when the chips were down.

An immeasurable factor important to our success was the enthusiasm of the student body. Never in the history of Fairfax County athletics has a team enjoyed such support. The kids could smell a winner!

Co-Captains John Booth and Keith Holman led the team by demonstrating in practice the hustle and hard work. Butch Eybers demonstrated the team balance through individual scoring in the Wakefield game and Bill Faunce proved his value with his consistent defensive rebounding. Cam Coberly, the only starting Junior, is our outstanding defensive player, while Wayne Taylor and Jim Schlotzhauer were big factors in our success. The hustle and drive of Jim Smith, John Booth, Lester Godfrey, Jim Harkness, Drew Landrus, Spencer Buckner, and Rick Lohmann made us a GO-MAN-GO team.

Track Team

With Senior Mike Foley "putting the shot," Bob Denny taking the hurdles, and Bernie Hockey sprinting, the '58 track season began. Disappointed by the first few meets, but inspired by the memory of the '56 and '57 Championship and the guidance of Coach Chaudet, the team went on for a successful season. The team received real support from its Juniors and Sophomores such as Craig Turpin, Ronnie Oleyar, Bill Fohrell, Bob Evans and Greg Fairhurst and others.

Homecoming Court

Homecoming Weekend

The Homecoming Game was the height of success this year because the Jaguars finally came out on top. This fact overshadowed the disappointment of having regular convertibles instead of Jaguars and the fact that Mary Freehill, Homecoming Queen, received a gold football with 1955 inscribed on it because hers was not ready yet.

And then came the dance with its ethereal decorations and lovely, formal atmosphere. The music of the band wafted over the gym, giving a dreamy effect combined with those strange blue lights on the stage. The court, of course, was magnificent with Mary making every other queen from the past look pale in comparison.

Sweetheart Court

Ginger Brown Watson, 1957 Queen
with Sue Oakley Reigning Queen

After having been postponed and almost forgotten, the Sweetheart Dance was finally held on March 29. Due to the glorious decorating job done by the assorted members of the S.C.A. and other organizations, the gym was literally transformed. Although getting out of school at 1:00 made it a terrific race, the practice of decorating the gym five weeks before helped speed up the whole job considerably. The band, between breaks, lent a dreamy atmosphere. As usual, the court appeared with mixed emotions of nervousness and excitement, dressed elegantly and lending loveliness to the formal scene.

To sum it all up, the dance was a huge success.

Seated: SUE OAKLEY, Sweetheart Queen; SANDY DODSON.

Prom Court

The Junior-Senior Prom, with all the worries leading up to it, was held with furbishes and furbelows at the Willard Hotel on May 30. Prom Queen, Judy Coggin, with all her court in attendance, gave this last but most important dance of the year that extra something of grandeur and glamour. The crowning of the Queen by last year's Queen, Jean Reed, gave a regal, formal touch to the evening. It will be one that is long remembered.

Note: Not easily forgotten either was the beach party which followed.

Student Council Representatives

Those secret meetings in the library have been exposed at last! They consist of Jim Smith and Company feuding, passing reams of legislation and staying out of class. Even so, they have accomplished a great deal for Falls Church this year and have been awarded a new lease to the library due to their excellent record.

Student Staff

The Student Staff bounded into its second year at Falls Church, ever bigger and more powerful. Under Mrs. Jackson and Mr. Mason operations went smoothly and with the help of Buddy Ragland, Carol Robey, Linda Hamma and Harry Diezel, activities have been supervised and trouble reduced to a minimum.

S.P.T.A. King and Queen

GEORGE ATWOOD, MR. MURPHY, MARY LENEHAN

Mr. Davis and Mr. Murphy line up the show.

King and Queen for a day! Nobility was crowned by Falls Church High School S.P.T.A. as a climax to its one tremendous fund-raising project in order to finance the two generous $250 scholarships to go to the top academic senior boy and girl for the 1957-1958 year. The Spring Carnival was both a financial and a social success and Falls Church owes much to its active and interested parent group.

S.P.T.A. programs have included Back-to-School Night, lively educational panels on the Junior High School plan versus the present system, and on the improvement of students' reading, as well as musical and forensic programs.

Key Club

The Key Club really had a blast this year as it culminated its year's activities at the annual Key Club Convention. They placed first for achievement and second for single service.

One of the most remembered of the activities was "Maid and Butler Day." The maids and the butlers straggled to class late all day exhausted, in a serf-like fashion, after having hauled mounds of books around for some unknown schoolmate.

Keyettes

The Keyettes, in co-operation with the Key Club, helped many of the kids live through football games by selling them hot dogs. They also ran breathlessly to classes, wearing weary smiles on "Maid and Butler Day."

One of the biggest contributions of the Keyettes was the money earned toward a foreign exchange student. When this friend from abroad materializes, he or she will be another Falls Church First!

Jaguar Journal

The Jaguar Journal staff, begrimed with printer's ink and carbon paper has struggled to give us a newspaper periodically all year long.

On top of this they provided those grim Saturdays with food and drink which helped to assuage shattered nerves and at football games they dished out programs which everyone read with fervor and trampled with equal fervor.

The Paw Print shall long be remembered for its coffee on cold mornings and doughnuts on hungry afternoons. All through the winter they collected good material and bad material until they compiled a magazine worthy of the name Paw Print. All this despite the increasing competition from Alfred E. Newman and Mad.

Farewell

As I watch the Seniors trail out of the doors for the last time I know they can remember their first year here at the Gulch under General Rumbough. That was the first year of additions to Falls Church and the eighth grade held classes in rooms without doors or windows. Those were the pioneer days when people used the glassless windows for short cuts to class or fought their way to the mobbed multi-purpose room for lunch.

Then that Freshman year and those split lunch periods when everyone shoveled down food before the next class began!

Sophomore year with Biology, frogs and those preying mantises that escaped all over the Biology room. There was the inevitable struggle with theorems and axioms as Plane Geometry for the first time took precedence over social activities and the square of the hypotenuse dominated their dreams at night.

By the Junior year — the life's a bowl of potato chips philosophy — gradually gave way to life is real and school could be earnest! Class standing was no longer something that nagging parents alone wanted for their young.

That was the year Mr. Mason became principal and the Student Staff came into being. Rules clamped down but school spirit shot up. That was the year that Finkville High School almost became a reality and the "For Sale" sign was up on the door. I know they'll never forget that.

Finally, there was this year, the Senior year, the last year, and the one they'll remember for years to come as the craziest year that they ever had. College and the Prom, and College Boards and the Prom, and Merit Scholarships and the Prom — all loomed large. It started out with the newness that a Senior year always has and from then on things began to get confused. There was the Asian flu when everyone went around with temperatures because there wasn't room for them in the clinic; and to top it all off there was a week off from school while everyone recovered. Then the snow began to fall and day after day they stayed at home because of road blocks and ice. In fact, they stayed at home so many times that the gruesome idea of school on Saturdays became a glaring reality. Saturday became universal "Scrounge Day" and girls in sweat shirts and beat-up tennis shoes were not uncommon sights. There was that thrilling weekend when the boys of the basketball team made history and took off for State. School spirit was at its peak! Then, of course, there was the measuring for caps and gowns, the fight with term papers and deadlines, and the final day when they graduated from Lisner.

And suddenly they were through. No more P.A., no more "crew" — no more Barrett, really through! And yet why do they keep looking back? Perhaps they may even miss it. Could be! So — good-bye for this last time. Remember me, for I shall always remember you.

— J. Jaguar
